

I believe Sinclair is not fulfilling its responsibility to the public. Their broadcasting uses public airwaves free of charge and they have a public obligation to air unbiased information, particularly when it involves politics and is being presented as "news". Limiting the public to only one side of an issue is unacceptable. Their mandatory broadcasting of Stolen Honor to promote and spread their political beliefs is neglectful and irresponsible.